Hi Dan,

As the day-90's are coming up again for these same cases, I went ahead and put-in additional 15-day suspensions. Let me know if you'd like to discuss.

Best,
Meg

Hello Dan,

I went ahead and added 15-day suspensions for each of the PMNs in my email, below, assuming that's okay with you; please let me know if you'd like to discuss.

I hear from the engineer that the updated engineering assessment for P-18-0185 may be completed next week.

Let me know if there's been a decision by the company regarding P-18-0096.

Best,
Meg
